WKND
2024

WKND INFO

From March 22-24th we will be hosting our fourth annual STUDENT WKND, and just like last year it will be held at First Baptist Tampa in the form of a "Disciple-Now" Weekend. During STUDENT WKND our students will not only briefly detach from the busyness of the world for a weekend to grow in God's Word together but will also enjoy an extremely exciting weekend worshipping with a great worship leader, competing in a lot of team-building games, and enjoying a fun Saturday activity! WKND '24 will begin at FBC on Friday night at 6:00PM and end by worshipping with our church family on Sunday morning.

The cost for WKND '23 (including all activities and food) is $75.

WKND THEME

Authentic

What does it mean to have an authentic relationship with God? What components come together to form an authentic relationship with God? How do we make that relationship last? How can we come to know God and become like him? All these questions will be addressed during Student WKND '24.

HOST HOME RULES

LEAVING

- Once students arrive at their host home they are not permitted to leave unless there is an emergency (we don't want our students driving around late at night)

PHONES

- Students will be asked to turn their phones in, dock them, or charge them to prevent any online searches and bullying during our time together. Instead, we want to encourage genuine connection amongst our students.
- Phones will not be hidden and students are able to use their phones in case of emergency or to contact parents if necessary.

LIGHTS OUT

- Students will follow the rules of the host home for turning lights out, quieting down, and going to bed.
